

As a mother of two babies, I strongly support the "Do Not Call List". Before I signed up, I was receiving phone calls all hours of the night. Putting my children to sleep was difficult when the phone was constantly ringing. Please do not revoke this act!